COMPETENCY BASED INTERVIEWS

PRACTICE & PREPARATION IS KEY_

Employees use behavioural questions to dig in to past achievements and predict future performance. Prepare answers to match your skill set to the employer's requirements. Try to relate your answers to the role that you're interviewing for.

Firstly, it's essential that you read and understand the job advert. Next, from the job description or person specification pick out the main competencies that the employer is looking for and think of examples of when and how you've demonstrated each of these. Try to draw upon a variety of experiences from your studies, previous employment or any work experience you've undertaken (taking part in The Diana Award).

Focus on past achievements that highlight your abilities in:

- Leadership
- Teamwork
- Problem solving
- Conflict resolution
- Overcoming failures

While your responses to the interview questions are pre-prepared try to avoid sounding like you're reading from a script.

EXAMPLES OF QUESTIONS_

- Describe a situation in which you led a team
- Give an example of a time you handled conflict
- How do you maintain good relationships with your colleagues?
- What has been your biggest achievement to date?
- Tell me about a time when your communication skills improved a situation
- Give me an example of a challenge you faced and tell me how you overcame it
- Give an example of a situation where you solved a problem in a creative way
- Can you provide an example of your strengths in action?
- Describe a time you have motivated or influenced someone

USE THE STAR METHOD TO STRUCTURE YOUR ANSWERS

SITUATION/TASK_

Describe the task that needed to be completed or the situation you were confronted with. For example 'I led and planned a fundraising event and presentation to promote my campaign work'.

ACTION_

Explain what you did and how and why you did it. For example 'I presented to an audience of 100, including 20 big industry players in the hope of winning their funding/support. I delegated sections of the presentation to my team members and we discussed our ideas in a series of meetings. After extensive research and practise sessions our group presentation went off without a hitch'.

RESULT_

Describe the outcome of your actions. For example 'As a result of this hard work and team effort we won the funding/support of 15 clients'.

We're proud to be the only charity set up in memory of Diana, Princess of Wales, and her belief that young people have the power to change the world. It's a big mission but there are two things within it that we focus our charity's efforts on – young people and change.

Throughout all our programmes and initiatives, 'change' for and by young people is central. We celebrate this by recognising young change makers with a Diana Award, the most prestigious accolade a young person can receive for their social action or humanitarian work.
